Dear Parents

Appointment of Head Teacher:

I am delighted to tell you that Mrs Nicola Hannett has been offered and accepted the post of Head Teacher at St Anne's Catholic Primary School, with effect from the start of the summer term.

The Board of Directors of Holy Trinity Catholic MAC and the Academy Representative Committee for St Anne's are confident that St Anne's is in very good hands with Mrs Hannett at the helm and a strong team around her. We congratulate her on her appointment and wish her, the school and the children every success.

We should also like to thank Mrs Spendelow and all the staff for all the help they gave us in making this appointment, and indeed for the sterling work they are doing running as normal during this interim period.

Yours sincerely
Ken Wilson Chair of Holy Trinity CMAC

Staff News:

Mrs Hodgkinson will be working four days a week starting after half term. Reception class will be taught by Mrs Murray every Tuesday. Please be assured that Mrs Murray and Mrs Hodgkinson will be planning together and in regular communication to ensure that this is a smooth transition.

We wish Mrs McMahon and Mrs Kerrs all the best as they begin their maternity leave at the end of this half term. We can't wait to meet their new bundles of joy!

I am delighted to announce that Mrs Scifo has been appointed as a Nursery Teaching Assistant while Mrs McMahon is on her maternity leave.

A message from Father Edgar:

"May I ask all parents to be more active and responsible members of our parish community. I hope you understand that it is an honour to be part of this parish and not only of the school. To be part of this faith community means to participate in the Sunday Eucharist and be involved in the life of the parish. I ask every family to make a commitment to attend Sunday Mass each week, particularly the special School Family Mass once a month."

'Let trust, respect and love live here'
